Property Description

Location: El Madroñal, Costa del Sol, Spain

Striking 7-Bedroom Villa with Sea Views in El Madroñal

Tucked into the exclusive enclave of El Madroñal in Benahavís, this bold 7-bedroom villa redefines luxury with its seamless blend of architecture and nature. Designed by the acclaimed Marcio Kogan in collaboration with Lamar Development, the property brings together modern elegance, privacy, and panoramic Mediterranean views.

Spanning three floors and over 1,100 m² of living space, the villa offers seven spacious bedrooms—each with its own en-suite bathroom—and an additional guest toilet. Expansive glass walls flood the open-plan interiors with natural light, creating fluid transitions between indoor and outdoor areas. Sophisticated yet welcoming, the interiors are finished with premium materials and contemporary lines, with furnishings that echo the clean design ethos throughout.

The outdoor spaces are just as impressive. Multiple terraces invite moments of al fresco dining or peaceful lounging, all surrounded by a landscaped garden and two dazzling swimming pools. A heated pool and a Turkish bath elevate the wellness experience, while the private cinema room and wine cellar speak to those who appreciate the finer things in life.

Life in El Madroñal is about tranquility without compromise. Located just 15 minutes from Marbella's coast, the area offers lush natural surroundings, top international schools, and easy access to gourmet dining and boutique shopping in nearby Benahavís and San Pedro. The gated community ensures peace and seclusion, making it a favorite among discerning buyers seeking both elegance and escape.

Schedule your private viewing and see how this exceptional villa lives up to every promise.
