Property Description

Location: Benahavís, Costa del Sol, Spain

Listed at €899,000, this La Torre penthouse in Los Arqueros offers three bedrooms, two bathrooms and 150 m² of built space, including 125 m² of interior area. Fully renovated in 2025 with a contemporary aesthetic, it sits in a peaceful corner position with a south-west orientation, allowing mountain and golf views to form a natural backdrop throughout the home.

The entrance opens into a bright living area shaped by large sliding doors that pull daylight into the room. Its open layout makes the most of the elevated position, giving a sense of space without losing the warmth of a private residential setting. The redesigned kitchen features streamlined cabinetry, quality appliances and a soft palette that blends seamlessly with the living room, creating a calm, cohesive space for both everyday routines and relaxed evenings.

One of the three bedrooms has been intelligently redesigned as a dedicated home office, offering a quiet environment ideal for remote work or focused tasks. The remaining bedrooms retain a soothing atmosphere, supported by two contemporary bathrooms finished with clean materials and understated detailing. The overall renovation highlights light, comfort and a modern coastal feel that aligns with the surrounding environment.

Views stretch across the mountains and the nearby golf course, giving the property a tranquil quality while still keeping essential amenities close. Los Halcones offers cafés, supermarkets and services within minutes, while San Pedro's restaurants and beaches remain easily accessible. This blend of privacy and convenience is one of the defining qualities that makes La Torre a sought-after address within Los Arqueros.

Residents benefit from multiple communal swimming pools and landscaped gardens that reflect the natural beauty of the Benahavis hills. Secure underground parking, a private storage room and direct lift access to the penthouse reinforce the sense of ease and practicality. The building's layout ensures privacy while maintaining a friendly residential environment.

Located within La Torre, one of Los Arqueros' most recognisable residential enclaves, this penthouse combines thoughtful renovation, contemporary styling and a functional layout with a desirable setting in Benahavis.
