Property Description

Location: Elviria, Costa del Sol, Spain

Listed at €4,750,000, Villa Ember is an architectural masterpiece in the prestigious area of Elviria, Marbella East. Designed by renowned architect Francisco Martínez Galván and developed by Homerun Developments, this modern villa features five ensuite bedrooms, six bathrooms, 454 m² of elegant interior space and over 620 m² of terraces on a 1,003 m² plot. Every inch of the property has been conceived to celebrate open living, natural light, and harmony between indoor and outdoor design.

The villa's striking façade combines clean lines, natural stone, and glass, creating a timeless contemporary aesthetic that fits seamlessly into its Mediterranean surroundings. Large panoramic windows fill the home with light and frame breathtaking views of the sea and surrounding hills. The architectural flow between the three levels ensures that every space feels connected yet private—ideal for both family living and entertaining guests.

Inside, the layout is defined by refined simplicity. The main living area opens directly onto expansive terraces, forming a natural extension of the indoor space. The kitchen, equipped with high-end appliances from Gaggenau and Siemens, merges functionality with elegant design. Oak floors and large-format porcelain tiles contribute to a warm, sophisticated atmosphere that enhances the villa's minimalist concept.

The five ensuite bedrooms are distributed across different levels, offering privacy and comfort for all family members. The primary suite enjoys sea views, a private terrace, and a spa-inspired bathroom finished with premium materials. A dedicated TV and entertainment room adds an element of leisure, while advanced home automation and security systems underline the property's modern convenience.

Set in a gated and tranquil part of Elviria, Villa Ember enjoys proximity to some of the best beaches and golf clubs in Costa del Sol, including Santa Clara Golf and Río Real. The area also offers excellent international schools, fine dining, and easy access to Marbella's vibrant town centre, just 15 minutes away.

This property represents the very best of modern Costa del Sol living—architectural brilliance in a serene coastal setting. For more modern properties for sale in Elviria, or to arrange a private viewing, please contact us today.
