Property Description

Location: The Golden Mile, Costa del Sol, Spain

Luxury Penthouse in The Golden Mile

Listed at €2,995,000, this renovated duplex penthouse in Jardines Colgantes offers four bedrooms, four en-suite bathrooms, 420 m² of built space with 195 m² of terraces, set within a prestigious hillside community on Marbella's Golden Mile.

Positioned within the sought-after Jardines Colgantes community, also known as Marbella Hill Club, this penthouse combines architectural refinement with a calm residential setting above the coast. Recently renovated, the property spans two levels and has been carefully redesigned to reflect a modern Mediterranean aesthetic, balancing clean architectural lines with warm materials and a natural colour palette. The elevated position enhances privacy while opening the home to wide views across the coastline and surrounding landscape.

The main living level is organised around an open-plan layout that connects the lounge, dining area, and kitchen into one continuous living space. Natural light flows throughout the interior, supported by large openings that lead directly onto expansive terraces. The kitchen is fitted with Gaggenau appliances and finished with wood cabinetry, marble worktops, and microcement detailing, creating a refined yet functional workspace that integrates seamlessly with the social areas of the home.

Accommodation is distributed across four generously proportioned bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom. The primary suite functions as a private retreat, offering abundant natural light and direct access to outdoor areas, along with open views toward the Mediterranean Sea and La Concha mountain. Additional bedrooms are designed to the same standard, providing comfort and discretion for family members or guests, while a guest toilet and storage room add further practicality.

Outdoor living is a defining element of this penthouse. The terraces have been designed to support both relaxation and entertaining, with multiple zones for dining, lounging, and enjoying the surrounding views. Thanks to the south-facing orientation, the outdoor areas benefit from sunlight throughout the day, reinforcing the seamless connection between interior spaces and the Mediterranean climate.

Residents of Jardines Colgantes enjoy a low-density, private community characterised by landscaped gardens and a tranquil atmosphere. The location offers a balance between seclusion and accessibility, with the beaches of the Golden Mile, Puente Romano, and Puerto Banús all within a short drive. Daily amenities, international schools, and shopping facilities are equally well connected, making the area suitable for both permanent living and holiday use.

This penthouse presents a considered opportunity for buyers seeking a renovated residence with outdoor space, privacy, and proximity to Marbella's most established coastal locations. Further
