Luxury Villa in La Quinta

Listed at €5,695,000, this villa in La Quinta offers five bedrooms, five bathrooms, 577 m² of built interior space, 428 m² of terraces, and a 1,160 m² plot within an elevated residential setting in Benahavís.

Tresora Villa C forms part of a private contemporary enclave in La Quinta, positioned to combine architectural clarity with its surrounding landscape. The property is arranged across three levels, each designed to create a natural flow between interior living areas and the outdoor terraces. Orientation to the south-west enhances light throughout the day while framing views across the golf valley and towards the coastline.

The main living level centres around open-plan spaces that bring together lounge, dining, and kitchen areas in a cohesive layout. Large sliding glass panels connect directly to expansive terraces, allowing the interior to extend outdoors. The kitchen is integrated into the living space and positioned for both daily use and entertaining, while the dining area opens naturally towards the terrace and pool area.

Outdoor living is a defining feature of the property. Terraces wrap around the main level and upper floors, creating multiple zones for dining, relaxing, and sunbathing. The infinity pool, measuring approximately 51 m², sits prominently at terrace level and is designed as a focal point of the exterior spaces. These areas provide privacy while maintaining open views over the surrounding landscape.

The upper level is dedicated primarily to sleeping accommodation. The master suite occupies a privileged position with its own private terrace, a walk-in dressing area, and a spacious bathroom. Additional bedroom suites on this level are arranged to offer comfort, privacy, and access to natural light, each maintaining a consistent design language throughout.

The lower entertainment level is conceived as a multifunctional space. It includes a cinema lounge, gym area, laundry facilities, and a private garage with space for multiple vehicles. Storage and utility rooms are also incorporated, ensuring that practical needs are addressed without compromising the overall aesthetic or flow of the home.

Located close to La Quinta Golf & Country Club, as well as Los Naranjos and Los Arqueros, the villa sits within easy reach of established golf courses and amenities. Puerto Banús and Puente Romano are a short drive away, placing beaches, dining, and services within convenient distance.
