Property Description

Location: The Golden Mile, Costa del Sol, Spain

Located in the established residential community of Altos de Salamanca, within the prestigious Altos de Puente Romano area of Marbella's Golden Mile, this renovated semi-detached villa presents a refined residential setting close to the coastline. The property forms part of a gated community with controlled access, surveillance systems and landscaped communal areas that include a shared swimming pool. Positioned on a corner plot, the villa benefits from additional privacy and a calm residential atmosphere while remaining connected to one of Marbella's most recognised coastal locations.

The villa has been renovated to present a contemporary interior with carefully selected materials and a calm architectural palette. The design prioritises natural light through large windows and sliding glass doors that create a direct connection between interior living areas and the garden. The main living space is organised around a comfortable lounge with a fireplace, flowing naturally toward the dining area and the kitchen. This spatial continuity creates a practical environment for both daily living and entertaining guests.

The ground floor includes a modern kitchen equipped with integrated appliances and a central island designed for both preparation and social interaction. Adjacent to the kitchen is a separate laundry room, allowing the main living spaces to remain uncluttered. The living and dining areas extend directly to the private terrace and garden, establishing a natural indoor-outdoor transition that is central to the home's layout. The south-facing orientation ensures sunlight throughout much of the day, contributing to the bright atmosphere of the property.

Four bedrooms are distributed across two levels, each designed to provide privacy and comfort. The main level includes a generously proportioned bedroom suite with dressing area and en-suite bathroom. On the upper level, three additional en-suite bedrooms provide well-balanced accommodation for family or guests. One of these bedrooms enjoys access to a private terrace facing south, offering an elevated outdoor space connected to the bedroom suite.

Marbella's Golden Mile connects residential tranquillity with easy access to beaches, dining venues and established amenities along the coastline. From Altos de Salamanca, residents are positioned within a well-known part of Marbella with convenient proximity to the sea and surrounding lifestyle infrastructure.
